Articulate Rise

What is this?
Articulate Rise is a user friendly tool that faculty members can use for creating responsive online e-learning modules. Modules can include text, graphics, video, audio and quizzes.

Why would I use this?
Instructors can use Articulate Rise to create interactive content for hybrid and online courses.

How do I use this?
Video resources can be found on their website:
- Getting Started with Rise
- The Latest Features in Rise
- Rise User Guide

Where can I get help?
Faculty: Faculty Support Center
Students: Student Support Center

Note:
Online instructors who would like to use this tool will need a subscription. Please contact the Faculty Technology Center for more information.