Digital Measures is a reporting tool that builds reports on faculty information. It enables Hofstra to keep track of publications, presentations, and many other Faculty driven achievements. It also assists administration in responding to requests for faculty-related data, rather than needing to continually ask for the information.
The following sections give an in-depth guide to updating your annual faculty evaluation. If you just want to see what needs to be updated in your Annual Evaluation, see Annual Faculty Evaluation Checklist.

Need Help? Contact Faculty Technology Center.