New York State mandates that all students watch a presentation about the following topics:

- Public Safety
- Title IX & Community Standards
- Bystander Intervention

Students attending Hofstra University's Orientation 2020 will be able to access the presentations and related assessments by following the instructions below.

1. Log in to the Hofstra Portal.

2. Under the My Courses section, click the Blackboard button.

3. Click the Courses button on the left side of the screen.

4. Click the 202009_Plac_Orie_0X_Orientation Week course. The X in the title will be the week you are going to or have attended orientation.
5. Click the 1 - Pre-Orientation Checklist link.

1 - Pre-Orientation Checklist

Before coming to orientation, make sure you go through the checklist here to make sure you’re ready.

- Public Safety
- Title IX & Community Standards (Three Sections)
- Bystander Intervention

2 - Orientation Week

During the week of Orientation, all of your orientation content and meetings will be here.

6. Scroll about halfway down the page and you will see links for the presentations. Click the one you want to watch and complete.
7. Each presentation will have at least one video you need to watch, followed by one or more assessments or surveys you need to complete. You must score 100 on each assessment for it to count as completed. You have an unlimited amount of time and an unlimited number of attempts to do this.

Public Safety Presentation (Required)

Public Safety - Orientation 2020

If you don’t hear the audio, be sure to click unmute

Public Safety Presentation Assessment

After watching the presentation, click the link below to begin a short assessment about the presentation. You must score 100% on this assessment.